

The Respiratory System

The respiratory system is contained in the thorax (chest). Here is a diagram of the system with some bits cut away to show its key parts.

Write down the parts involved with ventilation (breathing in and out).

Write down the names of 4 parts that contain air.

Gases are exchanged between the air and the blood in the respiratory system. Write down which gases are involved and the name of the part where the exchange occurs.