

English derivations

Many English words are derived from Latin ones. It is often possible to work out the meaning of an English word if you recognise the Latin root from which it is derived.

E.g. The English adjective pugnacious comes from the Latin verb pugnō = I fight and describes someone who likes fighting.

In years to come you will probably find yourself droning on about the importance of Latin, how it helps with the meaning and spelling of words, how it ought to be compulsory...

Revision

Well done! You have got through the first chapter and are almost ready for nouns. So this is a good time to revise carefully everything you have learnt about 1st conjugation verbs. Make sure you learn this information by heart. Life will be trickier than a great big tricky thing if you find that you need to keep flicking back to chapter one every time you meet a verb.

amō, amāre, amātum = I love, like

Imperfect Tense

amō	I love	I was loving, used to love
amā-s	You love	amā-bās
ama-t	He, she, it loves	amā-bat
amā-mus	We love	amā-bāmus
amā-tis	You love	amā-bātis
amā-nt	They love	amā-bant

Perfect Tense

amāv-i	I have loved
amāv-istī	etc.
amāv-it
amāv-imus
amāv-istis
amāv-ērunt

Present Tense

amā-bō	I shall / will love
amā-bis	etc.
amā-bit
amā-bimus
amā-bitis
amā-bunt

Points to remember

Make sure that you have learnt by heart:

1. amō in the four tenses you have met so far
2. The principal parts of amō
3. The various ways of translating the four tenses you have learnt
4. The meanings of the words in Vocabulary 1
5. nōn = 'not' and comes before the verb, not after (e.g. nōn amat)

So you really want to learn Latin...

Exercise 1.13

Read the information on the left-hand page about English derivations. From which Latin words do the following English ones derive? Translate the Latin word and explain the meaning of the English one.

E.g. Pugnacious = keen on fighting; from pugnō = I fight.

1. Laboratory
2. Navigate
3. Vocation
4. Expect

Exercise 1.14

Read through the revision section on the left-hand page and then translate into Latin:

1. He builds
2. They were fighting
3. We will sing
4. You (pl.) have sailed
5. They were not watching
6. He does not fight
7. You (sing.) used to like
8. We shall not watch
9. She has sailed
10. I was waiting

Exercise 1.15

Translate into English:

1. aedificant
2. festināre
3. nōn pugnābāmus
4. nāvigābitis
5. cantābam sed labōrābās
6. nāvigābātis
7. pugnāvit et superāvit
8. spectātis
9. aedificābis
10. nāvigāvistis

Exercise 1.16

Give the principal parts and meanings of:

1. labōrō
2. parō
3. cantō
4. aedificō

Exercise 1.17

Translate into English, being careful to use the correct tense:

1. amāvērunt
2. amābit
3. amātis
4. amābat
5. amābimus
6. amāvit
7. amābās
8. amāvistis

Circā

c. or circā (= around) is often used with dates to show that they are approximate. E.g. he died c. 1815.

Viving Latin